SUMMER WINE SERIES AT TALK OF THE TOWN RESTAURANTS

July 7, 2010 – Orlando, Fla. – With the arrival of summer also comes the season of indulgence. Join Talk of the Town Restaurants and delight in four expertly prepared courses that are each paired with a sommelier-selected wine. Meant to unite the best that the wine world has to offer with the award-winning cuisines prepared by Talk of the Town Chefs, the Summer Wine Series is an event for wine connoisseurs and food enthusiasts of all levels.

Running for the months of July, August, and September, the 22 events boast themes such as “Bubbles from Beginning to End” featuring sparkling wines paired with four truly unique courses and “The French Connection” highlighting the most renowned wines of the French countryside. With events being held at every Talk of the Town location, each course is sure to be as extraordinary and memorable as the restaurant in which it is held.

The month of July features seven dinners, each more exciting and diverse than the next:

July 16th – MoonFish

“The Riesling Experience with the Wines of Dr. Loosen and Robert Weil”

July 17th – Charley’s in Celebration

“Wines of Alexander Valley featuring Geysler Peak”

July 22nd – FishBones in Lake Mary

“Bubbles from Beginning to End: A Unique Wine Dinner Experience”

July 23rd – Vito’s Chop House

“An Italian Experience with Antinori”

July 24th – Charley’s Steak House in Tampa

“Malbec Madness”

July 29th – Charley’s Steak House on International Drive

“Celebrating Tuscany with Ruffino”

July 30th – Johnnie’s Hideaway

“Modern International Classics: Famous Pairings”

For only $50 per person (tax and gratuity not included), patrons can dine with the number one rated restaurants in all of Orlando, according to Orlando Magazine. Reception will begin at 6:30 p.m., while dinner will be served promptly at 7:00 p.m. Seating is limited and reservations are thus highly recommended. Please call (407) 581-1030 to R.S.V.P. Visit www.talkofthetownrestaurants.com for details on Summer Series Dinners in the months of August and September.
